Church Video Licence

UNLOCK THE POWER OF FILM AND TV

To show films, videos and live or on-demand television in public, permission is required. The Church Video Licence enables you to show film and TV scenes in services and can be combined with other licences to provide broad coverage for all church activities.

Use Film Scenes During Services

Use film scenes to illustrate sermon points, enhance notices and illuminate family-time themes

Youth and Children's Ministry

Use film scenes to bring Sunday school teaching to life, or show films during kids clubs and holiday camps*

Find the Perfect Scene

Unlimited FREE access to ScreenVue Vault; 10,000+ movie scene ideas and downloads

Show TV Broadcasts

Show television programmes as part of community or social events

Special Events and Mission Weeks

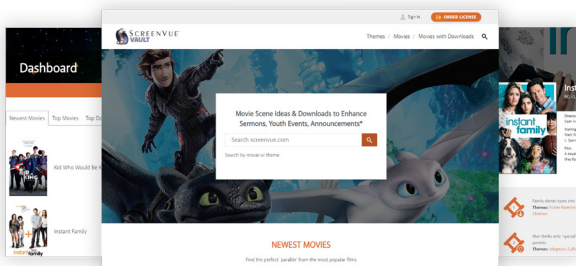

Host film nights as part of your social and outreach activities*

Regular Updates

Optional monthly emails highlight scenes from the latest releases covered by the licence

YOUR TICKET TO A WORLD OF INSPIRATION

Find the perfect film scene

ScreenVue VAULT connects you to thousands of film scene ideas and downloads, searchable by title or theme. Access is FREE with your Church Video Licence number. Simply visit screenvue.com

*To show films outside of your regular worship services your venue will also require a PRS for Music Church Licence, available from CCLI.

To show TV broadcasts you will also require a TV Licence, PRS for Music and PPL Church Licences, plus the appropriate commercial subscription if using a Pay-TV service. The Church Video Licence is not required to show news events and live sports. See ccli.com/screen-events for full details.

COVERING 1300+ STUDIOS/PRODUCERS

From TV studios to the Hollywood majors, the Church Video Licence covers films from a huge list of studios, including...

Are there any restrictions?

- >> You may show films from any authorised studio/producer. To check if a studio is covered visit ccli.com/check-film
- >> Additional licences are required to show films or TV outside of your services. See ccli.com/screen-events for full details
- >> You may take a collection during a film event, but not charge an admission fee
- >> You may promote film events internally to your church but not advertise specific titles externally

Can we use YouTube?

The Church Video Licence permits you to show film scenes from authorised studios via video-sharing websites such as YouTube provided the clip has been uploaded by an official source.

For a video/film scene not authorised by the Church Video Licence, CCLI recommends that you seek the direct permission of the copyright owner before showing it in public.

What's the cost?

The Church Video Licence is available as an annual or 14-day event licence. For licence fees visit: uk.ccli.com/copyright-licences
