UNLOCK THE POWER OF FILMS

Nearly all DVDs, Blu-rays, downloads and video-sharing websites such as YouTube are authorised for personal, private use only. The Church Video Licence covers you to use many films in church, while ScreenVue helps you find the perfect scene.

Use Film Scenes During Services

Use film scenes to illustrate sermon points, enhance notices and illuminate family-time themes

Youth and Children's Ministry

Use film scenes to bring Sunday school teaching to life, or show films during kids clubs and holiday camps*

Find inspiration with ScreenVue Vault

Free access to 10,000+ scene ideas and downloads, searchable by title and theme

Church Film Nights

Host film nights as part of your social and outreach activities*

Special Events and Mission Weeks

A 14-day event licence is available if you don't need annual cover

Regular Updates

Optional monthly emails highlight scenes from the latest releases covered by the licence

YOUR TICKET TO A WORLD OF INSPIRATION

COVERING 1000+ STUDIOS

From small independents to the Hollywood majors, the Church Video Licence covers films from a huge list of studios, including...

Are there any restrictions?

- >> You may show films from any authorised studio/producer. To check if a studio is covered visit ccli.com/check-film
- >> To show films in full, your venue must be covered by a PRS for Music licence, also available from CCLI
- >> You may take a collection during a film event, but not charge an admission fee
- >> You may promote film events internally to your church but not advertise specific titles externally

Can we use YouTube?

The Church Video Licence permits you to show film scenes from authorised studios via video-sharing websites such as YouTube provided the clip has been uploaded by an official source.

For a video/film scene not authorised by the Church Video Licence, CCLI recommends that you seek the direct permission of the copyright owner before showing it in public.

What's the cost?

The Church Video Licence is available as an annual or 14-day event licence. For licence fees visit: uk.ccli.com/copyright-licences
